HAVE A BLESSED EASTER
ST. BRENDAN CATHOLIC CHURCH
VERY REV. NICHOLAS WICHERT, PASTOR

PASTOR'S NOTE

Happy Easter, Everyone! The Lord is risen!! Alleluia!!

Our Lenten journey doesn't end with death, it ends with new life. Jesus rose from the dead after laying down His life for you and for me, for the forgiveness of our sins. He took on the sins of the world, so that each of us might have the opportunity for newness of life with Him, to share in the Resurrection. The choice of whether we share in the opportunity given to us by God rests on whether we choose to follow Him with our way of life. The key is to remain focused on the prize, eternal life in heaven is beautiful beyond our imagination.

Lent has reminded us again of our need for Penance, not only in the season of Lent, but to be dying to ourselves each and every day. As human beings we sometimes have a difficult time believing that in dying to our selfish desires we can actually find newness of life, but it is true. "Consequently, brothers, we are not debtors to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. For if you live according to the flesh, you will die, but if by the spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live" (Romans 8:12-13). Eyes on the prize!

St. Paul makes it abundantly clear to us that we are called to put to death the deeds of the body. "We were indeed buried with him through baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live in newness of life. For if we have grown into union with him through a death like his, we shall also be united with him in the resurrection. We know that our old self was crucified with him, so that our sinful body might be done away with, that we might no longer be in slavery to sin" (Romans 6:4-6). Heaven is worth it!

We grow into union with Jesus the more we die to ourselves, which is a message that is very counter-cultural indeed. We were freed at our baptism from slavery to sin, we must not submit again to the yoke of slavery if we desire to share eternal life with God. It was the issue the Israelites fell in time and again in the Old Testament. Sadly, we often do the same when we give priority to other things over God in our lives.

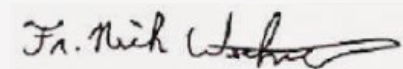

What we need to keep constantly in our minds is the life which awaits us if we choose to die to the self. Often we live in fear that if we let some attachment go, then somehow we won't be as happy. The reality is the opposite! "I consider that the sufferings of this present time are as nothing compared with the glory to be revealed for us" (Romans 8:18). No matter the sufferings of this present age, glory awaits you in heaven!

Our journey in this life and dying to the self, doesn't end with death. It ends with newness of life and freedom in this life. But the best part is that eternal life in heaven with God awaits us, if we choose to follow Him and to die to ourselves with Him.

This can help us put into perspective what we are going through in the Archdiocese of Seattle also, with Partners in the Gospel. Joining with a Parish family and entering into the unknown can be a fearful thing. And for each of us it will cause a little bit of dying to ourselves along the journey. However, it is our trust in the Lord Jesus that will bring us through. His presence with us in the Blessed Sacrament is a constant reminder that He never abandons us in this journey of dying to ourselves. As long as we are able to receive Him in Holy Communion, where we receive His Flesh and Blood, we receive all we need to have life within us. The Lord never abandons us. He promised He would not leave us orphans, and He hasn't for the 2000 years since he spoke those words. We still have the Mass, where Jesus becomes present in the Eucharist and we still have the Holy Spirit guiding us into all truth through the official teachings of the Church in faith and morals.

So we cling to Christ and His promises to us in the Church. We cling to the hope we have in Christ Jesus as we grow in our discipleship of Him. We give thanks to God that He humbled Himself to come among us and die for us so that we might share in His resurrection. We give thanks He continues to humble Himself each and every day to come among us on altars of Catholic Churches throughout the world so that we might receive His Body and Blood and be given the strength we need to persevere in our life of faith until we share in His glory, the Resurrection!

In the peace of Christ,

Fr. Wichert

HALLOW APP

Here is the corrected information for Hallow App. All parishioners have the App for free through Pentecost.

Holy Day Package - Hallow

1. Type in St. Brendan—our parish will pop up.
2. Then click Redeem Offer.
3. It will then give you the QR code >>> to use or if you are on your phone it will take you to the site. Just follow the instructions.
4. A couple of issues that people have had:

I am required to do a 7 day trial—Typically, there are two reasons that people see the 7 day trial instead of getting full access. The first reason is if they do not register through the Holy Day page in advance. Sometimes, people think that the holy day page is just one way to get access. Unfortunately, that is not the case. They will not be able to utilize their premium access except through first registering on the webpage.

The second reason this happens is if someone registers on the holy day page through one option (phone, email, google registration, or apple registration), and then they try to access their account a different way.

If you have any questions please contact the parish office. There has been quite a bit of bad information out there about our subscription and it has caused some confusion. Please call 425-483-9400. THANKS!

ST. BRENDAN YOUNG-AT-HEART SENIOR GROUP

In December 2022, Fr Wichert and a group of parishioners made a pilgrimage to the Holy Land. After their return, we were able to see beautiful pictures and interesting artifacts from their trip. Wouldn't it be really interesting to hear some "behind the scenes" stories? What was it like to make that trip with children? What was the medical care like? Did Fr Wichert really ride a camel?

Join us at 10AM on Wednesday, April 3, in the church narthex to hear answers to these questions. A few of the individuals who went on the trip will be present to share stories and answer questions that you might have. Afterwards, we will have a lunch catered by GyroBoss Mediterranean Grill, so that you'll have the opportunity to enjoy some of the same types of foods our parishioners did on their trip. Cost will be $15. Please contact Donna (206-335-4469) by Easter Sunday if you are interested in the lunch.

Spiritual Adoption Update - One Month - "I'm tiny" My heart started beating today! During this first amazing month of life the baby grows to 10,000 times his size at conception. He is totally dependent upon his mother. Between mother and child lies the vital organ called the placenta. Here vessels from mother and baby intertwine allowing food and oxygen to pass through to the baby. By the third week the baby's tiny heart begins to beat.

"As thou knowest not what is the way of the spirit, nor how the bones do grow in the womb of her that is with child: even so thou knowest not the works of God who maketh all." Ecclesiastes 11:5

If you are expecting, a baby and would like your church family to pray for you, please contact Martha Becker at (206) 557-2316 or marthab@school.saintbrendan.org.

PARTNERS IN THE GOSPEL

PRAYER

Gracious God, we praise and thank you for the Catholic Church in Western Washington. We praise and thank you for the women and men who have shared the joy of the Gospel here for more than 170 years. Send your Holy Spirit upon us that we might encounter your Son anew and become more effective partners in sharing the Good News of his saving love.

May our partnership in the Gospel empower us to be your missionary disciples, bringing the Good News to all, especially to those who are marginalized or hurting in any way. Give us the courage, the flexibility and the vision to renew parish life, so that the good work, begun long ago, may continue among us, and one day, be brought to completion in your Kingdom, where you live and reign for ever and ever. Amen.

ONLINE PARISHIONER REGISTRATION AND ONLINE GIVING

Every person's finances and family situation is different. Jesus makes it clear that it matters not how much one gives, but that it is planned, calculated, at least somewhat sacrificial (see Luke 24:1-4), and not simply from what is "leftover" at the end of the month.

We propose the tithe (10%) as the ideal every family can consider working towards. This means taking steps to give 5% to one's parish and 5% to other charities, or causes you have personal passion for.

You can register online at saintbrendan.org and click on the link Online Parishioner/New Parishioner on the right column.

To give online, click on the Online Giving link at the top of the page. It's quick, secure, convenient, and easy. Your support helps sustain our parish. If you need help with online giving, please call the Parish Office at 425-483-9400.
