MALAWI SISTER PARISH SUCCESS STORY

Greetings from Malawi, especially from your brothers and sisters at St. Joseph Parish. I am pleased to inform you that since the commencement of the feeding program at St. Joseph Primary School has so far witnessed the following progress:

1. Great Reduction in absenteeism. More and more learners are attending classes on daily basis unlike before the program.
2. More drop-outs are coming back to school after dropping out due to hunger.
3. There is an improvement in the retention of learners in classes knocking off hours unlike before the commencement of this program especially learners from infant and junior sections. More learners used to desert classes due to hunger. There is also an increase in school enrollment these two months due to the implementation of the program.

The program has been welcomed and fully supported by the community. This is evidenced by large numbers coming daily to prepare the porridge and also their constant support of firewood for the program. It is our sincere hope that the feeding program will improve learners performance hence reduce repetition rate in classes due to improvement in class attendance and active participation of learners in various activities at school.

Signed by Fr. Chris, pastor of St. Joseph, Namalaka

Works of Mercy/Obras de la Misericordia

Feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, shelter the homeless, visit the sick, bury the dead, give alms to the poor

Jesus preached a sermon about actually doing the works of mercy.

He compared people who help others to sheep, and people who do not help others, to goats. It wasn't really about sheep and goats, but about us.

You can read the passage in Matthew 25: 31-46. Jesús predicó un sermón sobre los que ayudan a los seres humanos, y los que no les ayudan, comparando ovejas y cabras. Lo mas importante es, que tratamos a los otros, como fueran Jesús mismo.

Mateo 25: 31-46

Ishmael and Hagar (Genesis 16)

Abraham was not patient when

God promised him a son.

Sarah's servant Hagar had a son with Abraham. Their son Ismael was not the "child of the promise" (Galatians 4: 38), but God promised Hagar that Ismael also would be the father of a great nation.

Abram y Agár—la sierva de Sará—tuvieron un hijo llamado Ismael. Este hijo no fue "el hijo de la promesa" (Galateo 4:38), pero Dios prometió a Agár que su hijo también fuera padre de una nación.

Jesus heals two demon-possessed men. Jesús sana a dos hombres sufriendo de demonios.

(Matthew 8: 28-34) Two men had demons who had taken over their lives. They lived outside of town in the tombs. Jesus came and healed the men. The demons were afraid of Jesus because he is the Son of God.

Jesús es el hijo de Dios. Jesús mandó a demonios que dejaran en paz dos hombres. Los demonios entraron en cerdos que se hundieron en el mar.

3RD SUNDAY OF LENT

When Jesus asked the Samaritan woman for a drink of water, He opened the door for a life-changing relationship with Him. Scripture says her testimony drew many others to Him as well. We, too, must be ready to respond whenever and wherever the Lord speaks to us and be prepared for it to change our lives!

CATHOLIC RELIEF SERVICES

Next week, our parish will take up The Catholic Relief Services Collection (CRSC). Funds from this collection help provide food to the hungry, support to displaced refugees and Christ's love and respect to all people here at home and abroad. Next week, please give generously to the CRSC and help Jesus in disguise. Learn more about the collection at www.usccb.org/catholic-relief.
