MUSIC CORNER

We know the church teaches us that chant is backbone of sacred music for the liturgy. Why would that be? Here are some reasons. Chant was formed and developed as an art form within the liturgy. The genre and individual pieces developed and grew with the words of the Mass themselves, and so in a sense it's inextricable from the Mass. There is no one "composer" of chant, but rather it's been an anonymous, collective effort of Catholics over the centuries, forming the heart of the liturgy. As the heart of the liturgy, which is the center of our life, it is the heart of our musical tradition.

Chant is word-oriented, as its structure is dependent on and meant to serve the text. The music is written to accentuate the meaning of the text. The Mass is Word-oriented, as it is founded in the Incarnate Word, Jesus Christ. The Mass is about Jesus and brings us Jesus in the Eucharist and scripture, and most of the words spoken are the Word of God. It follows that the music should be word-oriented as well.

The way chant is written forces us to slow down and quiet ourselves. The rhythm is subtle and flowing, the phrases are long and connected. It requires us to enter its space, stretching us intellectually and emotionally. We must come out of ourselves and our day-to-day experience to encounter it. The Mass is the same way. Jesus comes down to us while we stretch out to him, participating in the meeting of heaven and earth.

Some of the chant we sing at Mass is absolutely meant to be sung by everyone, and that's great. And some of the chant sung at Mass, for instance a second offertory or communion song or a meditative version of a proper text, can be meant for us to listen to the choir sing and internalize that way. Active participation is both internal and external. So there is a place for both singing and listening at Mass, and they should both draw us deeper into the mystery happening there. Chant gives us a great way to experience both modes of participation, as it is built to draw us into the mystery and celebration of the Mass.

ANNOUNCEMENTS (Contact Andrea with questions or to help out.)

Remember to pray for children, teens, and adults who are preparing this year for First Reconciliation, First Communion, and Baptism.

Advent Party for children of all ages. Date: Wednesday December 19, Time: 6:00 pm, Place: School Gym. Come early (4:00 pm onward) to help set up, bring cookies and/or juices, costumes or costume pieces for angels, shepherds, kings.

Old Testament

GOOD KING HEZEKIAH OF JUDAH

2 Kings 18-20

Israel (in the north, also called Samaria) and Judah (in the south) had so many wicked kings, that it's always wonderful to discover some of the wonderful kings who followed the Lord and were a "light to the nations." Hezekiah was a wonderful king. Samaria had already been conquered by the Assyrians. Their people had been taken away and made to settle in Assyria. Those 10 "lost tribes" were never heard from again. Hezekiah in Judah (tribes of Judah & Benjamin) didn't want that to happen. He destroyed places of pagan worship. He paid the Assyrians to stay away for a while. Judah became poor, but still Hezekiah followed God. The Assyrians waited outside Jerusalem for the people to become weak and starving. But the angel of the Lord struck down the Assyrians in the middle of the night, and the ones who survived left to go back home. Hezekiah died in peace.

New Testament

JESUS GOES BEFORE PILATE

Mark 15: 1-15

Pilate was appointed by the Roman Empire to be governor of Jerusalem and the surrounding area. He didn't know much about the Jewish religion. But he knew that Jerusalem was a place that was hard to rule. The Jews refused to allow any banners with pictures of the emperor in their city. This was unusual. Pilate always worried that there would be a riot and that news of that would get back to Rome. We have to remember that when Jesus came before him, Pilate had only heard that Jesus was said to be "King of the Jews." Was Jesus setting up a kingdom to fight against Rome? Pilate was amazed that Jesus wouldn't answer any of his questions. He knew that Jesus had not committed any crime. He wanted to set Jesus free, but the chief priests and the elders insisted that he should be crucified. Afraid of a riot, Pilate took the easy way out and gave in to their demands.

MY FAITH

Happiness with God: The Beatitudes

Christians have several passages of scripture that teach us about God.

The Ten

Commandments (Exodus 20: 1-17)

and the Great Commandments of Jesus (Matthew 22: 39) give us a map for our life with God.

The third great passage of scripture is Matthew 5: 3-14, eight ways to be happy with God, called The Beatitudes. 1. Be "poor in spirit" by knowing that you depend on God.

2. Know that God will comfort you.

3. The lowly will inherit the land.

4. The ones who want holiness will be blessed.

5. Show mercy.

6. Be single-hearted. Put all your energy into loving God.

7. Be a peace-maker.

8. You are blessed even when people hate you because of your faith.

MALAWI MOMENTS

What would a Christmas wish list look like in MALAWI? Malawi, home to our sister parish in the village of Namalaka, on the Southeastern shore of Lake Malawi (350 miles long) is among the poorest nations in the world (currently number 5). As one of the world's least developed countries with 85% of the population living in rural areas, the economy is based on agriculture with more than 90% of export revenues coming from this (mostly tobacco and a little tea). In contrast, the U.S. GDP (gross domestic product) per capita is $60,000 while in Malawi it is $1,200 (value of the economy divided by the number of people in the country). The U.S. is the 12th richest country and Malawi is the 5th poorest (estimate). Malawian needs are simple: Food, water, housing, health. They have much to teach us about love and care for one another. St. Brendan is providing ongoing support in the form of a school lunch program that feeds students in one of the largest grade schools. This Christmas please consider making a contribution to the Malawi fund. Make checks to St. Brendan and write "Malawi" in the memo line. God bless.

ONLINE PARISHIONER REGISTRATION & ONLINE GIVING

Every person's finances and family situation is different. Jesus makes it clear that it matters not how much one gives, but that it is planned, calculated, at least somewhat sacrificial (see Luke 24:1-4), and not simply from what is "leftover" at the end of the month. We propose the tithe (10%) as the ideal every family can consider working towards. This means taking steps to give 5% to one's parish, and 5% to other charities or causes you have personal passion for. You can register online at www.saintbrendan.org and click on the link "Online Registration/New Parishioner" on lower left corner of website and to give online, click on the "Online Giving" link. It's quick, secure, convenient, and easy. Your support helps sustain our parish. If you need help with online giving, please call the Parish Office at 425-483-9400.
