? DO YOU KNOW—Flowers in the Bible

1. Jesus compares lilies to someone famous. Who is that famous person? You can find the answer to the question in Luke 12: 27-28. (King Solomon)

2. What material was used to create the “open flowers” of the first temple? Read 1 Kings 6: 18. (cedar wood)

3. What comes first, the grape flower or the grape? Isaiah 18: 5-6. (The flowers come first.)

4. What spring flower blooms even in the desert? Read Isaiah 35: 1-2. (crocuses)

NEW TESTAMENT FRIEND—LYDIA

As Christianity started to spread to many places in the Roman empire, many women—both rich and poor—became Christian. We know of one wealthy woman named Lydia who is mentioned in the Acts of the Apostles. You can read her short story in Acts 16:14-15.

Lydia lived in the Roman colony of Philippi. She first met Paul when he was with a group of preachers who visited a prayer group meeting beside a river. She listened to Paul’s message and made up her mind that everyone in her household would be baptized. Lydia was a seller of purple dyes which were very expensive. This business may have earned her enough money to have a large house. Lydia invited Paul and his companions to stay with her while they were in Philippi.

Lydia is a good example of taking the things that you have and using these things for God’s glory.

SEVEN SUPER SACRAMENTS: Holy Matrimony brings a man and a woman together for life, with God as their Father and Guide. Married people make serious promises to each other—to share everything, to welcome children, and always to be faithful.

"HEART 2 HEART" PACKETS

For the homeless and economically hurting people we all see on the street corners with signs asking for our help. The St. Brendan "Heart 2 Heart" packets will contain a $5 gift card to McDonalds, a $10 coupon for a coat, shoes or a blanket at local thrift shops, a card announcing the "free dinner" at St. Brendan on Thursday evenings and a holy card. These items are enclosed in a personal not card with a bible verse and handwritten words of encouragement. Cost to parishioners is $5...SVDP Society will cover the $5 cost if a person decides to use the $10 coupon. Jesus asks us to "feed the hungry" and "clothe the naked". Now you can do this with a smile as you share your love of Jesus with a "Heart to Heart" packet available after Masses in the Narthex weekend of June 27/28.
