PART 4—CONTINUATION OF LETTER FROM BISHOPS OF MALAWI TO GOVERNMENT

On regionalism and tribalism the bishops say “While we have made important strides as a country to build ourselves as a democratic nation, we are worried that certain trends or forces have the potential to divide us.” The Bishops noted that these elements are slowly taking root in the society. “These manifest themselves in various forms especially through social, political and economic exclusion and inequalities between regions and tribes. Federalism was one of such manifestations. We remind all the people of Malawi that the founding fathers and mothers of this nation invested a lot of efforts and energy to ensure that Malawians see and treat each other as brothers and sisters.” The Church stated that unity is the cornerstone on which this nation is built. “No tribe is more valuable or important than the other.” The Church appeals to all citizens to put Malawi first before any tribal or regional interests. The government has also been asked to develop policies and programs that ensure that all sections of society are included. Political parties, Civil Society Organizations, Traditional authorities and the media have also been urged to desist from making statements that instigate or promote hatred among peace-loving Malawians. We also call upon our renowned economists to honestly respond to the question: Can an economy and its policies opt for the poor? We recall Pope Francis’ words of encouragement to all Catholics and people of good will to love their country, offering their best and advancing the common good.

FAVORITE GOSPEL PASSAGES AND WHERE TO FIND THEM

The word Beatitude comes from the Latin word BEATA, or Blessed.

These verses give us hints directly from Jesus on how to live.

MATTHEW 5: 1-12. A few things to remember.

- ◆ Poor in spirit (verse 3) means someone who depends on God for everything
- ◆ Peacemakers (verse 9) means the people who are peaceful themselves, and also pray for peace.
- ◆ Persecuted means that sometimes people will give you a bad time if you follow Jesus, but your reward will be great in heaven. Remember that the prophets were treated the same way.

ST. BRENDAN WOMENS BOOK CLUB

This month's book is entitled, "50 Women Every Christian Should Know" by Michelle DeRusha. This book shares the stories of 50 women—just like us—who listened, obeyed and became giants in faith. Their stories bring to life lives of women who boldly stepped out in faith and courage and left their mark on our world for God. Please join us on Monday, April 25 as we discuss this month's book at 7:00 pm in the Brendan House Dining Room.
