MALAWI MOMENTS HISTORY

1616 Portuguese Jesuit Missionaries and Traders came who were interested in slowing the spread of Islam from Arab countries and setting up Commerce, mostly god. The area consisted of loosely formed local clans or tribal states moving towards centralization. By 1839, the slave trade was intensely destructive and there were conflicts between northern and southern tribes. In 1859 the Scottish missionary David Livingstone explored and reported on the area. He believed in promoting Christianity, Commerce and Colonization. His research ultimately helped to end the slave trade. In 1907 a Colonial government was set up under the rule of the British Central African protectorate and the country was named Nyasaland. It was heavily populated and the least developed of the East African nations. 1943 saw the growth of Nationalism in the formation of the Nyasaland African Congress. In 1959 there were riots for Independence. 1964 Malawi was granted Independence with the first president Dr. Hastings Banda, local born in Kasungu, educated in America and previously having worked in Liverpool. Banda, a Catholic was President for 33 years until 1994 when he was voted out of office during the first free elections. The new president was Bakili Muluzi, a Muslim with two wives. He was president until 2004 when the country elected Bingu wa Mutharika who died in office in 2012. The new president was the first woman president, the vice president Joyce Banda. In 2014 they held the first Tripartite election. (cont'd) next week...

REVELATION

No matter how hard we try, we just can't imagine what God is like. God SHOWS us what we need to know, and that is called REVELATION.

God showed Moses a burning bush, Jacob a ladder of angels. A dove appeared at Jesus' baptism.

BIBLE STORIES IN THE NEW TESTAMENT

The Feast of the Transfiguration is in August every year. That is when Peter, James, and John went up on the mountain with Jesus, and saw him talking with Moses and Elijah. You can read the whole story in Matthew 17: 1-13.

NEW PRAYER: Come Holy Spirit . Fill the hearts of your faithful . And kindle in us the fire of your love .

Adult Faith

ST. BRENDAN WOMENS BOOK CLUB

It's time for a good read that takes you into the 4th century as our faith was growing and struggling..."Amid imperial intrigue, military menace and bitter theological debate, a hero rises in the form of a homely little monk named Athanasius, who stands against the world to prove that there could never be a Great Apostasy—because Jesus promised his Church would never be broken." Come join us as we discuss The Apostasy That Wasn't by Rob Bennett 7:00 pm, Monday, August 29th in Brendan House. Questions? Call Berni at 425-485-4893 or Anneliese at 425-486-4225.

AND GOD SAID WHAT?

Register now for And God Said What? A scripture study to be offered on Tuesday afternoons 1:00–3:00 pm or Wednesday evenings from 6:00–8:00 pm. (14 sessions) Register at table in Narthex on August 27/28, Sept. 3/4 and Sept. 10/11. Contact Francis Von Feldt for more information at 206-799-7199.

Why are Pancake Breakfasts so Important

Jesus called his disciples together for The Last Supper because he knew the importance of community within the first members of his Church. Please help us build a stronger community at St. Brendan by joining us for breakfast. We serve pancakes, scrambled eggs, bacon, sausage, coffee, orange juice, tea and hot cocoa. You are also welcome to seconds. The donation bucket with your generous support has not only covered the cost of food, but has allowed us to support many charitable causes. 21 more days!

BECOMING CATHOLIC

Have you thought about becoming Catholic or wondered what Catholics believe? If you have, then the RCIA process is for you! The RCIA process is a flexible and multi-step process that meets people where they are and guides them in discerning whether or not God is leading them into full initiation into the Catholic church. For more information, contact Pat Ibach at the Parish Office or pati@saintbrendan.org
