NAMALAKA NEWS—Malawi Culture as a Woman by Sister Parish Visitor Angelina Emmanuel, Head School Mistress (Principal)

Part 2—In regards to women's property rights, property grabbing happens soon after the death of a husband and even gratuity is not given to the wife. There are challenges in gender equity and fairness, in justice and the distribution of resources, benefits and responsibilities between men and women. There are abusive cultural practices that are forced on women such as rites of passages for girls coming of age and being forced into marriage at very young ages. Women are forced to perform rituals that are physically and emotionally degrading. Women and children are generally victims of gender-based violence. Psychological abuse takes place in the home in the form of excessive workload and being deprived of basic necessities, such as food and clothes by spouse. Spouses may prevent the woman from engaging in paid employment and from mixing with others. Women are prevented from getting an education by men. They have lack of funds to access appropriate service providers. Questions? Marie at 425-481-2484.

The Sacrament of RECONCILIATION

Have you already made your very first Reconciliation? Advent is the beginning of our Christian year, a great time to attend Reconciliation again! Tell God—through the priest—the actions you would like to CHANGE with God’s help. Be a great SERVANT OF CHRIST in the NEW YEAR.

7:00 pm Wednesday, December 14 is our Communal Penance Service. Plenty of time to attend Disciples Club AND go to Reconciliation. Andrea will take care of childcare until the service is over.

ADVENT begins today!

Baby Jesus was born in a stable in Bethlehem. He came from Heaven to become one of us. Our great and mighty Son of God was born as a helpless baby. Someday He will return as the King of Kings.

1ST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

The Son of Man will come at an hour you do not expect. Good stewards know that they are accountable to God for all they have and are, and they strive to live in readiness for His coming.

STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE

Everything we have and everything we are is a gift from God. Stewardship is the ability to share our gifts of life – Time, Talent & Treasure with others, no strings attached and no conditions. We share these gifts out of our love for God and gratitude to Him. "Seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well." Matt 6:23
