NAMALAKA NEWS—Malawi Culture as a Woman by Sister Parish Visitor Angelina Emmanuel, Head School Mistress (Principal) Part 2—In regards to women's property rights, property grabbing happens soon after the death of a husband and even gratuity is not given to the wife. There are challenges in gender equity and fairness, in justice and the distribution of resources, benefits and responsibilities between men and women. There are abusive cultural practices that are forced on women such as rites of passages for girls coming of age and being forced into marriage at very young ages. Women are forced to perform rituals that are physically and emotionally degrading. Women and children are generally victims of gender-based violence. Psychological abuse takes place in the home in the form of excessive workload and being deprived of basic necessities, such as food and clothes by spouse. Spouses may prevent the woman from engaging in paid employment and from mixing with others. Women are prevented from getting an education by men. They have lack of funds to access appropriate service providers. Questions? Marie at 425-481-2484.

The Sacrament of ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Mom! Mom! Call the priest. I think I have a cold.

Actually, Anointing of the Sick is for very specific situations. If someone is about to have surgery they can ask for Anointing of the Sick. If someone is in danger of death from illness, they can ask for Anointing of the Sick.

Anointing of the sick.

As always with Sacraments, it is JESUS who heals someone. In the case of death, it is JESUS who welcomes the dying person into eternal life. The priest or the bishop is called by the Church to give the Sacraments.

JESUS HEALS THE PARALYZED MAN

The friends of the paralyzed man lowered him down through the roof. How can WE help a sick person?

By becoming doctors or nurses or ambulance drivers.

By helping sick family members—bringing them food or water or things they need.

2ND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

We must be good stewards of God's gift to us, receiving them gratefully and cultivating them with care, lest we be the ones about whom John the Baptist speaks today, cautioning us, "Every tree that does not bear good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire."
