REPORT FROM FR. PAUL NKOLOMBIDZO, One of our friends in Blantyre, Malawi, 6 hours from Sister Parish Namalaka. "On Christmas, I went back to my home village to be with relatives. What I noticed was that this year's Christmas celebrations in the village were a rare sight. Usually the whole village celebrates with a communal meal, songs, drums and traditional dances. The hunger situation in the country has left little to celebrate. The figure the government has released is that 6.7 million are in need of food aid. Malawi is facing food shortages because the harvest of the previous two growing seasons were very poor due to devastating floods of 2015 and drought of 2016. I worked with three village heads to identify the ultra poor. Initially, I budgeted to reach out to 50 people with each one getting a 50kg bag of corn which can feed a family of 5 people for one month. However, on the actual day of distributing the food, the number doubled. Some elderly people and orphans just turned up although they were not registered. It was difficult to turn them away. So I began giving out 25kg of corn that benefited 100 people. I just wish you saw how grateful they were. There was dancing, singing and clapping of hands." (This story is about a village similar to Namalaka. The situation is much the same at our sister parish.) We have sent $1800. from the giving tree to the school at St. Joseph, Namalaka to help feed the children who number more than 2,000. It costs about $200. a day.

Happy Epiphany

January 6 is the traditional date for celebrating when the three kings came with gifts to visit Baby Jesus. Here is where you can find the story in the Bible.

VISIT of the MAGI Matthew 2: 1-15

What kind of trick did King Herod try to play on the Magi from the east? How did they know not to see him again?

THE FALL Genesis 3: 1-24

Adam and Eve had to leave the Garden of Eden because they disobeyed God. What might they have done differently? What would you have done in the same situation? As you read this story, remember that we cannot be GOOD without God's help.

LITURGY OF THE HOURS

The Liturgy of the Hours is based on the Psalms. People who worship together on a daily basis often pray together at certain times of day.

The Liturgy of the Hours is also called the Divine Office. If you go to this website you can learn more about this ancient prayer.

ST. BRENDAN WOMEN'S BOOK CLUB

Happy New Year! This month's book was gifted to each family who attended Christmas Masses at St. Brendan. Entitled Resisting Happiness by Matthew Kelley. It is a true story about how we can overcome fears to become our true selves..which is what God wants us to be...Happy! Come join us as we discuss this short, dynamic book. We will meet Monday, January 30, at 7:00 pm in Brendan House Dining Room.

Questions? Call Berni at 425-485-4893 or Anneliese at 425-486-4225.

Knights Corner

If Russell Wilson showed up at practice only once a week, played catch, watched a couple minutes of game film, talked with Coach Carroll and then headed home 60 minutes later (70 minutes if Coach Carroll's talk ran long), you wouldn't expect much improvement in his quality of play. Your faith journey is sort of like football; you must put in the practice time. If you are ready to take that next step in your faith journey, join the 180 men of St. Brendan Parish, who are members of the Knights of Columbus. We get a lot done and have a good time doing it.

To join the Knights, call Kevin Van Hollebeke 206-240-0275.

EPIPHANY

Today we remember the three wise men from the East who came to pay homage to the infant Jesus, bringing Him rich gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. The gifts we bring—our time, service and some share of what we earn for the work we do—are equally precious in His sight.
