MALAWI MOMENTS ONGOING CRISIS—HUNGER

In Malawi, crops have been devastated by a horrible combination of floods and droughts. 6.5 million people face chronic hunger. Right now a terrible situation is rapidly unfolding with Malawi facing its worst food crisis in many years, with millions on the brink of starvation not knowing how they will survive the coming months. Caritas International is a catholic organization that reflects the social mission and core values of the Catholic Church believing in dignity, solidarity and stewardship on behalf of the world’s most vulnerable people. In an interview with the head of Caritas Malawi (the catholic development commission) he gave us an experience of a boy (Casterns Mulume) from a family of 9 children. “The most painful thing was to go to school hungry, see some of your friends eating, then come back home and find there is no food.” Poor soil and poor rains contributed to the failure to produce food. Casterns said that studying on an empty stomach is hard because you can’t concentrate. When people wake up they think of food, nothing else. These same types of scenarios are playing out daily in our Sister Parish Community of Namalaka. If you pray and feel called to help, please donate online to Caritas International. Another organization working in Malawi to feed children in the schools is Mary’s Meals feeding over a million children. Donate online. For questions, call Marie Hedden at 206-948-5166. Stay tuned for how Elections are experienced in Malawi.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL WAS SO MUCH FUN!!

Here is a letter we received from our Missions Office

To Vacation Bible Camp families at St.
Brendan:

We are grateful for your parish's recent donation of $210 from your Vacation Bible Camp to Catholic Relief Services for child programs in Egypt. Here is how the money is being spent:

- Education and psycho-social support for Syrian children who are refugees in Egypt. The children are able to go to school.
- CRS programs also include conflict resolution training for Muslim and Christian youth in Egypt.

Thank you all for showing directly that the poorest of the poor are brothers and sisters to us all. Please continue to pray for our brothers and sisters throughout the Middle East and pray that peace will prevail.

In God's Peace, Missions Office

Come join us as we discuss The Apostasy That Wasn't by Rob Bennett 7:00 pm, Monday, August 29th in Brendan House. Questions? Call Berni at 425-485-4893 or Aneliese at 425-486-4225.
