Old Testament

MORDECAI SAVES THE KING

Esther A: 1-17

The beginning of the book of Esther is called chapter A in the Catholic Bible, because there are several extra passages not found in some Bibles. This part of the book tells us about a dream that Mordecai had. Mordecai was the uncle of Esther, a beautiful girl whose parents had died. She was raised by her uncle. Esther is one of the most beloved women in the Bible. King Ahasuerus lived after King Nebuchadnezzar died. Many captives from the old king's time were now living in Susa, including Mordecai and Esther. Mordecai had a dream about "noise and tumult, thunder and earthquake—confusion upon the earth." He spent the next day in prayer, asking what God was telling him. At last he realized that two men were plotting to take the king's life. He reported them and they were punished. But he made a powerful enemy by doing this. The enemy's name was Haman.

New Testament

THE CENTURION'S GREAT FAITH

Luke 7: 1-10

A centurion was a Roman officer in charge of 100 men. The centurion in this Bible passage was a man who loved the Jewish religion and had built a synagogue in Capernaum, one of the towns near the Sea of Galilee. This centurion had a servant who had become ill and was at the point of death. He talked to the Jewish elders and asked them to see if Jesus could come to his house and heal his servant. The elders lost no time in finding Jesus and asking him to help this worthy man.

However, not long after he asked Jesus to visit, he changed his mind.

The centurion did not consider himself worthy to have Jesus enter his house. "Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter my house." He had faith that Jesus could do anything. Jesus was amazed at his faith and cured the servant without entering the house.

MY FAITH

The Ways We Pray

Sometimes we think we can only pray at certain times of the day, such as mealtime, or bedtime, or when we are at Church. But we can pray any time! We can pray to God just by ourselves, or with another person, or with a group of people. We pray when we sing, we pray when we are silent. We can meditate by thinking about God's Word or thinking about God's actions in our lives

BIBLE BOOKS

Ezra, a priest who returned to Jerusalem after many years of the Jewish exile, was able to trace his ancestors back to Aaron. Ezra was very strict about the law of Moses. He helped the people learn to obey the Ten Commandments.

ONLINE PARISHIONER REGISTRATION & ONLINE GIVING

Every person's finances and family situation is different. Jesus makes it clear that it matters not how much one gives, but that it is planned, calculated, at least somewhat sacrificial (see Luke 24:1-4), and not simply from what is "leftover" at the end of the month. We propose the tithe (10%) as the ideal every family can consider working towards. This means taking steps to give 5% to one's parish, and 5% to other charities or causes you have personal passion for. You can register online at www.saintbrendan.org and click on the link "Online Registration/New Parishioner" on lower left corner of website and to give online, click on the "Online Giving" link. It's quick, secure, convenient, and easy. Your support helps sustain our parish. If you need help with online giving, please call the Parish Office at 425-483-9400.

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL 2019

We are now in our third week of the Annual Catholic Appeal Campaign, and we have raised 6% of our goal. Please fill out a pledge envelope today located in the pew or donate online at www.seattlearchdiocese.org/donate. Thank you!

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Paul and Barnabas encountered both violent rejection and joyful acceptance of the message that they preached. We, too, may meet with mixed reactions when we use our gifts in the service of God. But, the Gospel assures us, the reward for those who follow faithfully is eternal life.

NAMALAKA NEWS FROM FR. DAVIE MAMBO, PASTOR OF SISTER PARISH ST. JOSEPH IN NAMALAKA, MALAWI

"At the recent Parish Council meeting, we resolved the proposal on who will take part in an exchange visit in October this year. Myself as Parish Priest, the Parish Moderator (pastoral council president) with his spouse and a youth representative in the name of John Paul. We will be looking forward to the day this dream will become a reality. I have shared the news of the visit of friends from America in July (Brigette and Kerri). Everyone is excited and we look forward to welcoming them with open arms. On another note, Bishop Montfort Stima is pleased to appoint Fr. Fanuel Masakatira as Assistant Priest at St. Joseph Namalaka Parish. Fr. Fanuel is expected any day and we thank God for making this possible. Funds for various activities have been deposited in the parish account. We thank you for your kind assistance to our parish and for the projects you are supporting. Greetings to all our dear friends and may God bless you."
