Children & Family Ministry

Jesus called the disciples to pick up their cross and follow him.

He calls us to follow him too, even when times are hard. No matter how bad the situation, God can use it to help us grow.

Talk

Here are some reflection questions to help you have Great Conversations with the whole family.

September brings the start of a new school year, which usually means connecting with friends, meeting new teachers and getting brand new school supplies. Now, with the pandemic, most of us will begin the school year at home with remote instruction. Parents and children alike are disappointed and concerned about what this fall will bring.

Though they pale in comparison, our disappointments give us a sense of how the disciples must have felt upon learning Jesus' destiny to die on the cross in our Gospel reading. Sometimes, we have to make sense of the reality that God's plan for us includes things we don't want.

Four things we can do to help our children grow this fall:

- Start by reflecting on your feelings about the fall to come. How do you feel about a fall with remote instruction? Are you disappointed or worried?
- Relate an experience when God was at work in a difficult experience in your past. Let your children know about a time when you truly experienced disappointment and/or difficulty. How did it feel at the time? Looking back on the experience, can you see how God was at work, now that you have more perspective?
- Ask your children how they feel about starting school with remote instruction. If they are experiencing disappointment, let them share those feelings.
- Encourage your children to pray, asking God to help them. Encourage them to pray not just that the difficulties of the fall will be eased, but that God will strengthen them with courage and self-control so that they might grow in strength and maturity during this time.

ST BRENDAN GARDENS

Thanks to all who came to last Saturday's work party. The "curbside appeal" of the west border of church property is definitely improved! It was quite a job to trim branches off all those trees so much so that we didn't get to work on the trees on east side of the property. We'll have to do those during the next work party. Please join us on the morning of Saturday, September 26. Contact Anneliese at 425-770-2103 if you have any questions.

SPIRITUAL ADOPTION UPDATE

"I looked Around Today!"

Our spiritually adopted babies are now seven months old. Beginning this month the baby uses four senses. His eyelids open and close and the eyes look around. The baby can taste, touch, cough, yawn and hiccup. He now recognizes his own mother's voice, and he responds when her voice reaches his ears. His grip is even stronger now than it will be after his birth. The hair on his head is growing longer and the downy covering on the rest of his body is disappearing. During this time the baby will receive antibodies from his mother providing him immunity to a wide variety of diseases. Please remember to pray daily for your spiritually adopted babies and their mothers.

RESPECT LIFE COMMITTEE

Please Pray for these Expectant Mothers: Crissy Cuda, Carrie Hansen, Jesse Harmon and Tera Linde. We pray that you will have a healthy pregnancy and a safe delivery of your baby. Congratulations to these new parents: Lauryn & Michael Boxx, baby girl, Ellyn Ann Boxx. If you are expecting a baby and would like your parish family to pray for you, please call Mary Hradec at 425-275-1896. St. Gerard is the Patron Saint of Expectant Mothers

ONLINE PARISHIONER REGISTRATION & ONLINE GIVING

Every person's finances and family situation is different. Jesus makes it clear that it matters not how much one gives, but that it is planned, calculated, at least somewhat sacrificial (see Luke 24:1-4), and not simply from what is "leftover" at the end of the month. We propose the tithe (10%) as the ideal every family can consider working towards. This means taking steps to give 5% to one's parish, and 5% to other charities or causes you have personal passion for. You can register online at www.saintbrendan.org and click on the link "Online Registration/New Parishioner" on lower left corner of website and to give online, click on the "Online Giving" link. It's quick, secure, convenient, and easy. Your support helps sustain our parish. If you need help with online giving, please call the Parish Office at 425-483-9400.
