

WELCOME TO
SAINT BRENDAN & SAINT TERESA OF CALCUTTA PARISH FAMILY
FEAST OF THE HOLY FAMILY OF JESUS, MARY, AND JOSEPH
DECEMBER 28, 2025

When Herod had died, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt and said,

"Rise, take the child and his mother and go to the land of Israel, for those who sought the child's life are dead."

He rose, took the child and his mother, and went to the land of Israel.

But when he heard that Archelaus was ruling over Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go back there.

And because he had been warned in a dream, he departed for the region of Galilee.

He went and dwelt in a town called Nazareth, so that what had been spoken through the prophets might be fulfilled,

He shall be called a Nazorean. - Mt 2:19-23

APPEAL for SERVING OUR SAVIOR (SOS)

For over 20 years, St. Brendan's Serving Our Savior or SOS has made a tremendous impact in both our immediate and surrounding communities. Currently we make 150 meals for 5 different shelters every Thursday, benefitting children rescued off the streets, women being kept from abusive partners, and unhoused families. Unfortunately, as we all know, food costs have increased a lot, and while we try very hard to be good stewards, we are currently spending more than we receive in donations.

If you have not given to SOS, please consider giving even $5. You can do this by writing a check and putting SOS in the memo line, placing a check or cash in the green monthly envelopes, or increasing your current gift. If you are a current donor- THANK YOU for supporting this ministry!

'Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me.' — MATTHEW 25:40

PRAYER TO THE HOLY FAMILY

JESUS, MARY, AND JOSEPH, in you we contemplate the splendour of true love; to you we turn with trust.

HOLY FAMILY OF NAZARETH, grant that our families too may be places of communion and prayer, authentic schools of the Gospel and small domestic churches.

HOLY FAMILY OF NAZARETH, may families never again experience violence, rejection and division; may all who have been hurt or scandalized find ready comfort and healing.

HOLY FAMILY OF NAZARETH, make us once more mindful of the sacredness and inviolability of the family, and its beauty in God's plan.

JESUS, MARY AND JOSEPH, Graciously hear our prayer. Amen.

(Pope Francis, Amoris Laetitia, 325)

FLOOD RELIEF 2025

We have all been saddened by the recent flooding in Western Washington and the devastation for local families and businesses. As a parish family, we will be looking for opportunities where we can help physically with the cleanup and rebuilding efforts, which will take quite some time and will most likely take place in the New Year. If you feel moved to act now, here is a list of organizations to consider.

- Archdiocese of Seattle - Emergency Relief Fund: archseattle.org/flood/ - Accepts funds.
- Support CCS Disaster Relief | Catholic Community Services of Western Washington - ccsww.org/funds/support-ccs-disaster-relief/ - Accepts funds.
- SKAGIT Disaster Relief Fund: skagitcf.org/disaster-relief.html - Accepts funds.

GROWING IN FAITH

ALL HAPPY FAMILIES ARE LIKE THE HOLY TRINITY

By Zoltan Abraham

One of the most controversial topics in New Testament interpretation today is St. Paul's statement, found in the long form of this Sunday's Second Reading, "Wives, be subordinate to your husbands, as is proper in the Lord" (Colossians 3:18). Many would prefer not to discuss the passage at all. Oftentimes the short form of the reading is used at Mass to exclude this line. But precisely because the passage is so controversial, we should talk about it.

Discussions of the passage often neglect the context. The next line reads, "Husbands, love your wives" (Colossians 3:19). In our contemporary culture, the word "love" has been greatly weakened and has often been reduced to little more than being nice. But the New Testament concept of love is much more substantial. To love means to act in a Christ-like manner. Christ showed love by giving himself fully, even at the cost of his own life.

Indeed, in the parallel passage to this one from his Letter to the Ephesians, St. Paul writes: "Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ loved the church and handed himself over for her" (Ephesians 5:25). How did Christ love the Church? He did so to the point of allowing himself to be crucified for her. In the Pauline vision, the central image of the ideal husband is that of Christ submitting even to crucifixion. So if we are going to talk about a wife being submissive to her husband, we should also discuss the husband loving his wife even to the point of being willing to be crucified for her. That would give us a more complete picture.

In contemporary Western culture, the Pauline vision of marriage has often been dismissed as irrelevant or, on the flip side, has often been interpreted as a sort of caveman caricature, giving license to men to be domineering tyrants over their wives. But St. Paul's vision of marriage is that of mutual sacrificial self-giving for each other, where each is seeking the good of the other.

The Second Reading for this Sunday also touches on the relationship between children and their fathers. The biblical concept of authority is that those in leadership over others should exercise their power for the benefit of those whom they lead. Thus, authority should never be self-serving or self-reverential, but should always be about pouring out ourselves for others. Thus, the Pope, who is the leader and spiritual father of the whole church, is referred to as the Servant of the Servants of God.

In the Gospel Reading for this Sunday, we see St. Joseph engaged in self-giving leadership. When Jesus, his foster son, is threatened, Joseph flees with his family, evading the soldiers to seek shelter in a foreign land, Egypt. There he has to start a whole new life, overcoming cultural and linguistic barriers in order to provide for them. When Herod dies and the threat is removed, Joseph moves the family back to the Holy Land, finding a spot that is outside of the reach of Herod's successor. (On a side note, today, pilgrims can visit the neighborhood in Cairo where the Holy Family is believed to have resided during their sojourn in Egypt.)

If Joseph had been a sinful man, he might not have gone through all this hardship to protect his family. He might well have traded Jesus for comfort and safety for himself. But Joseph was holy and he recognized that authority confers responsibility. For him to love and care for Jesus and Mary meant that he had to upend his own life completely in order to serve them, protect them, and provide for them. Those of us who have been entrusted with the care of others should reflect on how well our actions mirror those of Joseph. Do we compromise the well-being those entrusted to us for the sake of our comfort and ease? Or are we willing to give of ourselves even at great personal cost for the benefit of those we are meant to serve through leadership?

As we reflect on the nature of true love, the primary image for us is the Holy Trinity. God is love - infinite, boundless, eternal love. Love is never solitary. Love requires an exchange, a dynamic of self-giving. Thus, in the Holy Trinity, there are Three Persons, who, as our faith teaches us, are fully one and yet still distinct - the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The Father is the One Who Loves, the Son is the Beloved who receives the love of the Father, and the Holy Spirit is the love dynamic between the two. God by his very nature is eternally, infinitely self-giving love. Thus, to be like God, we are to give of ourselves sacrificially.

Leo Tolstoy famously said at the start of his novel Anna Karenina that "All happy families are alike; each unhappy family is unhappy in its own way." Happy families are happy because they are like the Holy Family, which mirrored the boundless self-giving love of the Holy Trinity. Trinitarian self-giving love is at the heart of a happy family home. Happy families, furthermore, are at the heart of a healthy, well-functioning society. Thus, for society to thrive, the foundation must be eternal, boundless self-giving Trinitarian love.

As we seek to emulate the self-sacrificial love of Christ, one caution is needed with regard to romantic relationships. When it comes to romance, true self-sacrificial love will only work when it goes both ways. If one person gives and gives and the other only takes, the relationship becomes abusive. As the saying goes, it takes two to tango. For a romantic relationship to be healthy, both sides need to pour themselves out sacrificially.

Reflecting on the feast of the Holy Family this Sunday, we should also remember that the concept of family at the time of Jesus, as in many cultures still today, entailed an extended network of family members. In Western culture today, we tend to think of family as the nuclear family, consisting of just the parents and any children they might have. But traditionally, a family has been seen as a clan of a large group of family members whose lives are deeply interwoven.

When Joseph and the Virgin Mary traveled to Bethlehem for the census, they had to leave their extended family behind. They had to go alone again when they fled to Egypt with Jesus. But when they were back in Galilee, they were surrounded by extended family, which we see glimpses of in different parts of the Gospels. As we seek to emulate the Holy Family on this feast day, let us remember the traditional view of family. If we are not in touch with our extended families, we should seek out those connections, as much as possible.

But perhaps we do not have extended family anywhere near to us or any who are still alive. Or perhaps connection with them is not possible for a variety of reasons. If that is the case, we should also remember what Jesus said about the Church. As Christians, we are to be family for each other. We are to love each other as if we were blood relations. We are to give of ourselves for each other sacrificially as we would for our birth family.

ONLINE PARISHIONER STEWARDSHIP PLEDGES & ONLINE GIVING

Every person's finances and family situation is different. Jesus makes it clear that it matters not how much one gives, but that it is planned, calculated, at least somewhat sacrificial (see Luke 24:1-4), and not simply from what is "leftover" at the end of the month. We propose the tithe (10%) as the ideal every family can consider working towards. This means taking steps to give 5% to one's parish and 5% to other charities, or causes you have personal passion for.

You can give online at parish.saintbrendan.org (STB) or at <https://pushpay.com/g/saintteresacalcutta> (STOC) or scan the following QR codes with your phone's camera. It's quick, secure, convenient, and easy. Your support helps sustain our parish family. If you need help with online giving, please call the Parish Office at 425-483-9400 (STB) or 425-806-8096 (STOC)

PARISH FAMILY TAX REMINDER

Our Annual Reminder about your Taxes:

- Donations received (or postmarked) by December 31st will be recorded on your 2025 parish giving report.
- Online Giving donations made by you on or before December 31st will also be recorded on your 2025 giving report.
- Please consider an end-of-year donation to the parish family/school or one of the many Catholic charities. See page 11 for ways to give.

Your giving is helping to make our parish and our community a better place! A grateful thanks to you, our faithful parishioners, for blessing the parish this year as together we continue in these challenging times to do the work of Christ. Please keep our Parish and School Community in your prayers.
