FLOOD RELIEF 2025

We have all been saddened by the recent flooding in Western Washington and the devastation for local families and businesses. As a parish family, we will be looking for opportunities where we can help physically with the cleanup and rebuilding efforts, which will take quite some time and will most likely take place in the New Year. If you feel moved to act now, here is a list of organizations to consider.

- Archdiocese of Seattle - Emergency Relief Fund: archseattle.org/flood/ - Accepts funds.
- Support CCS Disaster Relief | Catholic Community Services of Western Washington - ccswww.org/funds/support-ccs-disaster-relief/ - Accepts funds.
- SKAGIT Disaster Relief Fund: skagitcf.org/disaster-relief.html - Accepts funds.

MOMS GROUP

We meet every Wednesday at 9:30AM in the St. Brendan nursery. Our next meeting is Wednesday, JAN. 7. All children are welcome up to 10 years of age. Please bring any toys or snacks your child may need. You can email stbmomsgroup25@gmail.com with questions or for more information.

FIAT90

The first official FIAT90 meeting will be Saturday, JAN. 10 at 9:30AM in Lower Brendan. Even if you are not quite committed, please come and ask your questions! For FIAT90 please contact Brigitte Blair. More information coming on Exodus 90 soon!

APPEAL for SERVING OUR SAVIOR (SOS)

For over 20 years, St. Brendan's Serving Our Savior or SOS has made a tremendous impact in both our immediate and surrounding communities. Currently we make 150 meals for 5 different shelters every Thursday, benefitting children rescued off the streets, women being kept from abusive partners, and unhoused families. Unfortunately, as we all know, food costs have increased a lot, and while we try very hard to be good stewards, we are currently spending more than we receive in donations.

If you have not given to SOS, please consider giving even $5. You can do this by writing a check and putting SOS in the memo line, placing a check or cash in the green monthly envelopes, or increasing your current gift. If you are a current donor- THANK YOU for supporting this ministry!

'Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me.' — MATTHEW 25:40

WELL-READ MOM

Do you love literature? Please join us every third Tuesday of the month at 10:00am in the Commons Room at Saint Teresa. The group follows the structure of Well-Read Mom, a national organization, but, despite the name, our group is open to all adults, not just moms or women. For subsequent meetings, we will be reading one book per month. Our next meeting is on Tuesday, JAN. 20.

LET US PRAY FOR . . .

The Sick

God of all goodness, Look with mercy on all who suffer any kind of infirmity, sickness or injury, that they may be comforted. Let your hand of healing and protection be upon them. When they are fearful, ease their fear and anxieties. When they are afraid, give them strength and courage. When they feel alone, send them someone to listen and to care. When they are confused, provide reassurance and direction. When they are in pain, ease their suffering. When they despair, give them hope. May they experience your healing presence in the comfort of a caregiver's calm gaze and tender touch. We ask this in your holy name. Amen.

EPIPHANY BLESSING OF THE HOME

It is a long-held Catholic tradition to bless one's home on (or near) the celebration of the Epiphany, the Sunday between January 2 and January 8, by using chalk to write a special inscription above the home's entrance.

This weekend, we are blessing chalk and bottled water at Mass for you to take home, along with the Epiphany prayer, and participate in this tradition.

The inscription written over the door changes every year. For this year, you should write: "20 + C + M + B + 26."

The Letters C, M, and B have two meanings. They are the initials of the traditional names of the three magi: Caspar, Melchior, and Balthazar. They are also the first letters of the Latin words Christus mansionem benedicat, "May Christ bless the house." The + signs represent the cross, and 2026 is the year.

GROWING IN FAITH

THE MAGI KNEW THE ANSWER

By Zoltan Abraham

The Feast of the Epiphany commemorates the arrival of the Three Wise Men, also known as the Three Kings or the Magi, who traveled a long distance, most likely from Persia, to see the child Jesus. The visit of the Magi has deep theological significance. Jesus was born among the Jewish people and was the fulfillment of the ancient Hebrew prophecies of the coming of the Messiah. However, the Magi recognized that his mission was not just to the people of Israel, but to the whole world. His work of redemption was to be for all of humanity.

When they find the child Jesus, the Magi prostrate themselves before him, which is a sign of worship. Thereby, they recognize Jesus as the true power in the world. They do not reverence Herod, who is the local king, installed by the Roman Empire, which controlled the area. Nor do the Magi show worship to the Roman Emperor, who was regarded as a divine figure. Persia was outside the control of Roman Empire and the Magi show no sign of bowing before the power and majesty of mighty Rome. Instead, they single out the child Jesus for their obeisance. The true power in the world is not the emperor controlling formidable armies but the child Jesus, who is God Incarnate.

The Magi worshipping Jesus highlights the kingship of Christ. But Christ would not claim raw power by subduing nations through military force, as the Romans did, and the Persians too, when they were a great imperial force. Instead, Christ brought spiritual transformation into the world through his self-sacrifice upon the Cross. He freed humanity from our spiritual bondage. He opened the door for us to enter into the new order of the world ruled entirely by divine love.

The gifts brought by the Magi speak of the true identity and future actions of Christ. The gold was a royal gift, pointing toward Christ's kingship. The frankincense highlights Christ's Divine Nature, since incense was used as a sign of worship. At the same time, the frankincense also shows his future role as the high priest, who will offer up the ultimate sacrifice on behalf of the human race, allowing himself to be killed upon the Cross. The myrrh points toward the mortality of his human nature. He will die upon the Cross and experience human death, until the Resurrection.

Thus the coming of the Magi already signals the true mission of Christ. Ironically, the Magi traveling from so far away recognize who Christ is, but the local political authority, King Herod, refuses to accept the coming of the prophesied Messiah. Instead, as the Gospel passage for this Sunday continues, Herod tries to kill the child Jesus, ordering the slaughter of all boys under the age of two. The Holy Family has to flee to Egypt in order to escape Herod's murderous plan.

The irony of the flight into Egypt could not be overstated in the historical context of the Israelites. Many centuries earlier, the patriarchs of Israel moved to Egypt, where the Israelites became numerous and prosperous. The Egyptian Pharaoh became jealous of their success and enslaved them. In time he also tried to destroy them by ordering the slaughter of all newborn Israelite males. God then raised up Moses and Aaron in order to free his people from the bondage of Egypt. We see in the Exodus account how the Israelites were eventually freed and then set out toward the Promised Land. Every year, the Israelites would celebrate their liberation in the Passover ritual.

In time, the Israelites established a powerful and prosperous kingdom in their new land. But due to their disobedience, God allowed them to be overcome by foreign powers. However, through the prophets, God promised them the coming of the Messiah who would liberate them.

When Jesus is born, the long-awaited Messiah had finally come. But instead of being welcomed by the contemporary ruler of his people, he has to flee to Egypt for safety - to the very land from which God had rescued the people of Israel. Egypt is safer for him than his own land.

Herod's attempt to kill Jesus shows just how determined the forces of darkness are to oppose God's grace in the world. We do not have to look far in our own culture to see those forces active. The powers seeking to defeat Christ and to eradicate Christianity from the world never rest. Just as Herod slaughtered the Holy Innocents in the attempt to kill Jesus, the dark powers active in our culture today will stop at nothing. As followers of Christ, we can expect to be targeted. We might even have to make the ultimate sacrifice for our faith.

But we must remember the Resurrection. Christ seemed to be overcome by the forces of evil. He died upon the Cross. He was placed into a tomb. But then he rose from the dead. He conquered sin and death, showing that his divine power is greater than the forces of darkness in the world. Christ showed that he is the true ruler of the world. In the fullness of time, the whole world will come to see what the Magi recognized already so many years ago, that Christ is the true King of the Universe.

According to tradition, after the Magi returned home, they did not receive news about the events of the life of Jesus. That is, until the Apostle Thomas journeyed to the area where they lived to spread the Good News. St. Thomas met with the Magi, told them about the death and Resurrection of Christ and baptized them into the Christian faith.

Traditionally, the Magi have been known as Caspar, Melchior, and Balthazar. Their tombs are believed to be in Cologne Cathedral in Germany. The Magi have always been honored in Christian culture and a number of popular customs are associated with Epiphany, the feast commemorating their arrival.

Historically, the Feast of the Epiphany, celebrated on January 6, marked the end of the Christmas season and ushered in Epiphany season or Epiphanytide, which would last until February 2 or the start of the pre-Lenten preparations, whichever came sooner. Epiphanytide continued the Christmas spirit and was in many ways an extension of Christmastide.

Traditionally, the Feast of the Epiphany was marked with great feasting. A popular custom, still observed in some areas, is the Epiphany cake, which has a bean or a baby Jesus figure hidden in it. As the slices are passed around, whoever finds the hidden item becomes king or queen for the day. The Epiphany cake is a fun custom to bring back, especially if you have children in the home.

January 6 was also the traditional gift-giving holiday, rather than Christmas Eve or Christmas Day, in memory of the presents of the Magi. Perhaps we could save some of the Christmas gifts and give them on Epiphany instead. Or if you were late in giving someone a gift for Christmas, you could make up for it with an Epiphany gift.

The Feast of the Epiphany is the traditional time for the blessing of homes. On this day, chalk blessed by a priest is used to write the following on the doorpost of the main entrance to the home: "20 + C + M + B + [year]," the last being the last two digits of the year in question and the letters signifying the initials of the Magi. After the chalk inscription is made, the family prays a blessing over the home, asking for the outpouring of the grace of Christ for the coming year.

As we celebrate the Feast of the Epiphany, let us also bless our homes. Let us invite Christ to be the King of our homes and of our entire lives. Let us prostrate ourselves before Christ, as the Magi had done, recognizing him as the true ruler of the universe.

CYO SPOTLIGHT

Hey, Parents - did you know that your children are eligible and welcome to participate in all St. Brendan CYO sports programs simply by being registered parishioners at St. Brendan or St. Teresa? For more information on CYO and the programs offered at St. Brendan, please reach out to Ena Demeter at ena322@yahoo.com.

St. Brendan CYO is proud to announce the addition of a beautiful new crucifix and CYO prayer banner to our school gym - this marks an important milestone for CYO Athletics and reflects thoughtful feedback provided by the families of our athletes. These very visible symbols reflect our commitment to weaving our Catholic identity into every part of student life, including athletics and beautifully express our desire to keep Christ at the center of our sports programs. We hope that the new additions help to inspire anyone who enters St. Brendan's gym to play with purpose, gratitude, and faith.

ONLINE PARISHIONER STEWARDSHIP PLEDGES & ONLINE GIVING

Every person's finances and family situation is different. Jesus makes it clear that it matters not how much one gives, but that it is planned, calculated, at least somewhat sacrificial (see Luke 24:1-4), and not simply from what is "leftover" at the end of the month. We propose the tithe (10%) as the ideal every family can consider working towards. This means taking steps to give 5% to one's parish and 5% to other charities, or causes you have personal passion for.

You can give online at parish.saintbrendan.org (STB) or at <https://pushpay.com/g/saintteresacalcutta> (STOC) or scan the following QR codes with your phone's camera. It's quick, secure, convenient, and easy. Your support helps sustain our parish family. If you need help with online giving, please call the Parish Office at 425-483-9400 (STB) or 425-806-8096 (STOC)

PARISH FAMILY TAX REMINDER

Our Annual Reminder about your Taxes:

- Donations received (or postmarked) by December 31st 2025 will be recorded on your 2025 parish giving report.
  - Online Giving donations made by you on or before December 31st 2025 will also be recorded on your 2025 giving report.

Your giving is helping to make our parish and our community a better place! A grateful thanks to you, our faithful parishioners, for blessing the parish this past year, as together we continue in these challenging times to do the work of Christ. Please keep our Parish and School Community in your prayers.
