

WELCOME TO SAINT BRENDAN & SAINT TERESA OF CALCUTTA PARISH FAMILY

TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
SEPTEMBER 27, 2026

PARABLE OF THE TWO SONS

JESUS said to them,
"Amen, I say to you, tax collectors and prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God before you. When John came to you in the way of righteousness, you did not believe him; but tax collectors and prostitutes did. Yet even when you saw that, you did not later change your minds and believe him."

MATTHEW 21:31-32

GIVING THANKS

Dear St. Teresa-St. Brendan Parish Family,

Thank you so much for being a part of our first annual Harvest Festival! Whether you helped us plan, volunteered your time during the event, or attended with your family and friends, you made this event an absolute success.

Our goal was to bring our community together in faith and fellowship. Seeing everyone laughing, sharing meals, and connecting was a true blessing. We could not have pulled this off without your combined generosity and prayers. May God bless you for your kindness and dedication to our parish community.

SAVE THE DATE: SUNDAY, OCT. 4

We will have a Life Chain Event where we hold Pro Life signs and pray the Rosary and other prayers/hymns/songs for the protection of human life. It is a peaceful and prayerful event. We have mostly positive reactions, but there are a few negative, but we pray for them and do not react.

We have the signs, just show up on Sunday, OCT. 4, from 1:30PM to 3PM at Bothell Way and Reder Way, near Caffe Ladro and McMenamans. See you there! For questions, email Colleen Danforth at rdhcoll@aol.com. It's a powerful time, you won't regret participating!

MISSA EM PORTUGUÊS MASS IN PORTUGUESE

Uma Missa em Português é celebrada na Paróquia St. John Vianney (12600 84th Ave NE, Kirkland) no quarto domingo de cada mês, às 18h, com confissões a partir das 17h e confraternização. Católicos brasileiros são calorosamente convidados. Mais informações em instagram.com/paroquiasjybr

Na segunda-feira, 12 de outubro, dia da festa de Nossa Senhora Aparecida, padroeira do Brasil, será celebrada uma missa especial em português às 19h, precedida pela oração do terço às 18h30. Todos são bem-vindos.

If you are expecting a baby and would like your church family to pray for you, please contact Colleen Danforth at rdhcoll@aol.com.

Have you ever had the opportunity to take Jesus to someone needing His love? We are a team of five volunteers who visit Bothell

Health Care every Wednesday morning after Mass. We bring Holy Communion to 10 to 20 Catholic residents and spend time visiting with those who want company—some of whom rarely receive visitors.

Occasionally, we even get to invite former Catholics back to the Church and let Jesus do the rest! We are looking for five more people to join our team. If you feel even a small calling to this rewarding ministry of genuine love and appreciation, please pray about it and reach out by calling Anne at 206.234.5849 and attend the important training on SEP. 30 by Deacon Leon.

GROWING IN FAITH

TRUE LOVE VS FALSE EMPATHY

By Zoltan Abraham

The Second Reading for this Sunday includes one of the most famous description of Christ in the New Testament, stating that Christ, "though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God something to be grasped. Rather, he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, coming in human likeness; and found human in appearance, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross" (Philippians 2:5-8). Christ is God Himself, who became incarnate, taking on human nature. He lived among us as one of us. He did not use his divine powers for his own glory but only to perform miracles in support of his proclamation of the Gospel message. At the culmination of his earthly ministry, he accepted death upon the Cross, in atonement for our sins.

As Christians, we are all called to be like Christ. We are called to invite Christ into our lives, into our very being, and become channels of Christ's love. We are to be humble like Christ, regarding "others as more important than" ourselves (Philippians 2:3), as St. Paul says. We are to love sacrificially, giving of ourselves to others not just from the surplus of our lives, but from the very core of our being. Sacrificial giving also means that we are to be crucified for each other, as Christ was crucified for us. For some of us, the Cross might mean literally dying in service of others. But for most of us the Cross entails daily acts of unselfish self-giving, serving those around us in small ways and great ones. Taking care of our children when we don't feel like it, being there for elderly parents even when it's hard, visiting a lonely family member in a retirement home instead of watching movies -- all these acts and more are examples of sacrificial love.

The more we die to ourselves, the more Christlike we become and the more we are filled with the life of Christ, which is true life. Thus, paradoxically, the more we die to ourselves, the more we come to life. Also, just as Christ was glorified by the Father after completing his earthly mission of the Cross, so too we will be glorified in Heaven if we humble ourselves even onto the Cross in this life.

However, as we reflect on humility, we need to raise one caveat. Sometimes Christians interpret humility in such a way that they lose their focus on Christ in the face of other religions or systems of thought. According to this attitude, to be truly humble as Christians, we should elevate other faiths, giving them encouragement or even preference in society. Instead of putting Christ in the center, such a view looks toward a generic, overarching brotherhood of all men, which was one of the slogans of the French Revelation.

But such an attitude could be described as false empathy, or in the parlance of our time, as suicidal empathy. Christian love does not mean that we surrender Christian civilization, Christian culture, and Christian structures to other religions. On the contrary, Christian love means that Christ is always in the center of not only our individual lives but of how we seek to build and run society.

Historically, the Church has taught the doctrine of the social kingship of Christ, meaning that Christ is not only the King of Heaven, but the King of our world here and now and that we need to organize our world according to the values of Christ.

Doing so is not a desire for control or power, but love for all of humanity. God is love and he created the world out of love to share his love with us. He created us with a fundamental inner hunger, an existential yearning for his love. He became one of us, came among us, and died for us, so that we could receive his love. Only the love of Christ can truly fulfill the yearning of our heart, the deepest desire of humanity. Thus, if we stop proclaiming Christ to others, if we stop advocating for Christian values in society, we are robbing others of the opportunity to encounter the only true source of joy, the only complete fulfillment.

The First Reading discusses how sin leads to death, while following the path of goodness leads to life. That does not mean that all sinners will immediately die. In fact, some live to a ripe old age. Nor do the good necessarily live long. Sometimes the best of people die young. But sin causes spiritual death; whereas following God leads to spiritual life. Embracing the love of Christ is not merely one of many equally good options in life. Embracing Christ is the only way we receive true life in this life and the next.

At the same time, the Gospel Reading shows us that we must not be Christians in word only. We see one son promising to obey his father, but failing to do so, and another son saying he won't obey but then doing so. Jesus holds up the son who did as the father had asked as the better of the two. As the saying goes, actions speak louder than words. It is not enough for us to say that we are Christians and to proclaim Christ with our lips. We must live out our relationship with Christ every day, every moment of each day.

The Fund for St. Brendan School

Support Our School Through the Fund for St. Brendan, Forward in Faith!

As we begin another wonderful school year, we invite all families to support the Fund for St. Brendan, our annual giving program that helps provide resources and opportunities that enrich every student's experience.

Contributions to the Fund for St. Brendan support important school priorities, including academic programs, technology, campus improvements, extracurricular activities, and financial assistance initiatives. Every gift, no matter the size, makes a meaningful difference and helps us continue our mission of providing an exceptional Catholic education.

Celebrating 60 Years of St. Brendan School

As we celebrate the 60th Anniversary of St. Brendan School, we are grateful for the generations of students, parents, teachers, and supporters who have helped create the faith-filled community we cherish today. Since 1966, thousands of students have learned, grown, and deepened their faith within our school family.

To honor this milestone and invest in the future of Catholic education at St. Brendan, we invite families, alumni, grandparents, and friends to participate in our 60th Anniversary Fund.

Consider making a special anniversary gift:

- $19.66 to honor our founding year, 1966
- $60 as part of our 60 for 60 Challenge
- $1,966 as a leadership anniversary gift
- Or any amount that is meaningful to your family

Every gift helps strengthen the mission of St. Brendan School and ensures that future generations of students have the same opportunities to learn, grow, and thrive in faith.

As we celebrate 60 years of excellence, community, and Catholic education, thank you for helping us build the next chapter of the St. Brendan story. Together, let's honor our past and invest in our future.

ONLINE PARISHIONER STEWARDSHIP PLEDGES & ONLINE GIVING

Every person's finances and family situation is different. Jesus makes it clear that it matters not how much one gives, but that it is planned, calculated, at least some-what sacrificial (see Luke 24:1-4), and not simply from what is "leftover" at the end of the month. We propose the tithe (10%) as the ideal every family can consider working towards. This means taking steps to give 5% to one's parish and 5% to other charities, or causes you have personal passion for.

You can give online at:

- St. Brendan Parish (STB) - parish.saintbrendan.org
- St. Teresa of Calcutta (STOC) - <https://pushpay.com/g/saintteresacalcutta>
- OR can the QR codes with your phone's camera, >>> It's quick, secure, convenient, and easy. Your support helps sustain our parish family. If you need help with online giving, please call the Parish Office at 425-483-9400 (STB) or 425-806-8096 (STOC) .
